

---

How Will the New Public Charge Rule Affect You? (Video)

By Carl M. Shusterman / Mar 16, 2020

The US Department of Homeland Security and State Department issued a new public charge rule that went into effect on February 24, 2020. This new rule affects green card applicants and temporary visa applicants, including current individuals who are seeking to change or extend their status. Learn more in this video: