

International Legal Networks

Working for our Clients Locally And Globally

Clark Hill's Global Reach

In today's increasingly global economy, it is crucial for businesses to have the ability to continue to operate, grow and service their needs wherever those needs arise. Clark Hill is experienced in handling the international legal requirements of any type or size of business.

When you are operating in unfamiliar territories it's really important to have a trusted legal team to support you and that's why we have developed a trusted relationship with other law firms around the world. Today, Clark Hill has relationships with law firms in over 60 countries, with areas of specialization to match your needs. The firms share Clark Hill's values of being proactive, provide high quality services with a personal approach.

Our 'best friends' network enables us to connect you with trusted partners around the world who can provide the local expertise you need in the most effective, efficient way.

International Legal Services Director

George T. Brandon
213.417.5124
gbrandon@clarkhill.com

International Legal Services Areas of Practice

China Practice
Cuba Practice
Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA)
International Trade Law
Joint Ventures
Mergers & Acquisitions
Mexico
White Collar Criminal Defense