
Community Involvement

Clark Hill has a strong legacy of civic and professional leadership at the local, regional and national levels. Understanding that leadership not only makes a positive contribution to the community, but also helps our attorneys gain perspective, hone their skills and build connections that are valuable to our clients, we encourage and support all types of leadership endeavors.

Our attorneys and other professionals serve on many of the most influential for profit and nonprofit boards in their respective cities. As a firm, Clark Hill regularly commits financial support to organizations making a difference in the communities we serve.

Many of our attorneys have been elected to positions of service within local, state and national bar associations, including three past presidents of the State Bar of Michigan and the current President-elect of the National Bar Association.
