
Count On More Value

Count On More Value is a perfect blend of tradition and innovation. It consists of five comprehensive components of successful business management. This full-service approach can be applied at various stages of business maturity, from start-up status to large international enterprises.

Trusted Advisor

A Clark Hill attorney functions as an advisory board member with a growing business to give the entrepreneur a legal perspective during the strategic decision making process. This allows clients to access our experience, resources, knowledge and networks and apply them to day-to-day issues.

Team Legal Portal

This web-based document and data management tool allows clients access to their current or past matters in real time from anywhere in the world. Clark Hill attorneys utilize this tool in many ways, from communicating with foreign clients to managing complex multi-matter cases nationally.

Public Relations

Our extended team helps clients effectively communicate with their audiences by applying strategic thought and energy to resolve client-related marketing issues. We focus on building awareness, understanding trends and issues and meeting client goals and objectives.

Legal Audit

The Clark Hill audit team applies the advanced skills of our highly qualified and experienced attorneys, and our robust audit process, to identify potential litigation exposures, risks and opportunities. The business areas included in this audit process are: Business Structure, E-Discovery, Corporate Contracts, Supplier Contracts, Intellectual Property, Insurance Assessment, Employment Policies and Procedures.
