

Ana Watson

Member

Ana Watson represents primary and excess insurers and reinsurers with respect to their North American exposures. Ana is skilled at assisting foreign and domestic carriers with pre-underwriting risk assessments and managing the claims portfolios of prestigious medical centers and workers' compensation insurers nationwide. She has worked with insureds to improve their risk and claims management practices, and draws on her litigation experience to favorably resolve multi-million dollar personal injury claims for her clients. She also regularly provides coverage analyses and policy drafting services with respect to a variety of exposures.

Ana belongs to the Chicago Bar Association, Defense Research Institute, the Illinois Association of Healthcare Attorneys, the American Society for Healthcare Risk Management and the Professional Liability Underwriting Society.
