
Delaney L. Beier

Associate

Delaney Beier is an Associate in the Clark Hill Dallas office. She is part of the Fidelity, Surety & Coverage team.

During law school, Delaney worked as a law clerk for an insurance defense law firm as well as a claims and compliance intern for a surety company. She worked as a student attorney with Drake University's Entrepreneurial/Transactional Clinic, assisting with entity selection, document formation, and ongoing compliance concerns of small businesses. In addition, she served as a junior staff member and note editor of the Drake Law Review, as well as a teaching assistant with Drake University Law School's legal research/legal writing program. She was selected as an alternate for the Fulbright-Schuman Program for her research proposal concerning corporate social responsibility throughout the European Union.
