

Jennifer A. Bielfield

Senior Counsel

Jennifer A. Bielfield understands the fast-paced nature of her clients' businesses and the need to offer the best quality at competitive rates. Her clients range from national to regional banks and financial institutions. Clients depend on Jennifer for high-level advice knowing and trusting that she will seamlessly negotiate deal terms to best protect her clients' interests without compromising the integrity of the process. Her experience in representing bank clients is broad-reaching, including both bilateral and syndicated deals. Her areas of focus include aircraft financing, vessel financing, export financing guaranteed by The Export-Import Bank of the United States, international lending law (including structuring loans with companies located in Korea, Mexico, Spain, Germany, the Netherlands and other parts of Eastern Europe), construction loans and real estate loans. She also advises financial institutions on the manner to perfect and continue security interests in unique kinds of collateral, including intellectual property, tractors and trailers, marketable securities, vessels and aircraft.
