
John D. Ermanni

Practice Group Director

Chinese simple: 简体中文

John D. Ermanni is the Practice Group Director supporting Clark Hill's Corporate Law, Intellectual Property & Technology, and International Trade Law Practice Groups. In this role, John is responsible for managing the daily operations of the practice group, as well as directing the strategic planning and business development activities that will allow the practice group to achieve its ambitious objectives.

At Clark Hill, John brings significant cross-functional leadership experience in the corporate world, acquired by directing global finance, operating and business planning activities. Prior to joining Clark Hill, John spent over 19 years as an executive at Compuware Corporation, which was one of the world's largest independent software vendors and IT professional services providers. Prior to joining Compuware, John spent 10 years at General Motors in various finance positions on GM's Corporate Financial Staff, at General Motors Acceptance Corporation and at Delphi Automotive Systems.

At Compuware, John most recently held the position of Vice President International Finance, responsible for all financial activities outside of the United States. Reporting to the CFO in this role, John led a team of 100 finance professionals in 24 countries. Previously, John was a Vice President in Operations, functioning as the chief of staff for the COO and leading a 100 person organization that included inside sales, telemarketing, global pricing and quality planning. John also managed worldwide corporate planning activities while reporting to the CEO, which included the development of the company's annual operating plan, the consolidation of monthly revenue and earnings forecasts and providing analytical decision support for all departments.

John's corporate experience includes the integration of acquisitions; facilitating carve-out divestitures to strategic and private equity buyers; establishing finance shared service centers in Europe and coordinating corporate restructuring and reorganization initiatives. During his corporate career, John served as a member on Corporate Executive and Operating Committees. John also served on the Board of Directors for numerous country entities.
