

Linda G. Kochanski

Paralegal

Linda Kochanski has personal legal services experience in a wide variety of areas including tax planning and preparation, estate planning, probate and trust administration, corporate formation and real estate transactions. She endeavors to provide comprehensive, high-quality service in an efficient, accurate and timely manner.

Linda assists our attorneys in the establishment and maintenance of corporations and limited liability companies, preparing and filing required reports with federal and state taxing bodies, and maintenance of corporate records. Linda has extensive experience in real estate transactions and works with attorneys from contract to closing. She assists in estate planning and trust administration by coordinating with clients and their financial advisors to retitle assets based on attorney recommendations to properly fund trusts. Linda works with attorneys in the preparation of probate court documents and accounts. She has experience with the administration of guardianship estates for disabled adults including annual accountings and court filings. Linda assists attorneys in the preparation and assembly of income and estate tax returns, creating spreadsheets and detailing assets.
