Have a leave question or want help with a separation? Need an employment handbook or training program put together? Recently learn that a Complaint will draw you into state or federal Court or in front of an agency, or have to deal with a union grievance or collective bargaining? Mario Bordogna, Member in Clark Hill's Labor and Employment Practice Group, can help. As an attorney, counselor and advocate who takes pride in partnering with employers in Pennsylvania, West Virginia and elsewhere, he works with clients on the front end to keep them in legal compliance with labor and employment laws, but also is there to assist them on the back end if things happen to go wrong and they need a strong and experienced litigation advocate.

For two decades, Mario has represented employers in sectors like health care, energy, hospitality, manufacturing, education and others, understanding their business and helping them achieve their goals to legally and more efficiently manage their workforce. He adds value to his clients by being a dependable attorney they can count on for assistance when almost any employment issue arises, including in the areas of HR and employment counseling (hiring, firing, leave issues, employment handbooks and policy development); labor-management relations (collective bargaining, grievances, union avoidance, arbitration); employment litigation (discrimination, wrongful discharge, sexual harassment, wage and hour); Pennsylvania workers' compensation, and general employment and civil litigation.

Mario's wealth of skill and experience in the labor and employment arena has been regularly recognized by his clients and within the legal community. He has been selected as a Super Lawyer three times, and was selected as a Best Lawyer in America in both 2016 and 2017. He is a Board Member of the Pittsburgh Human Resources Association, a member of the Leadership West Virginia class of 2011, and the chairs the West Virginia Manufacturers' Association's HR Committee. He also has been repeatedly sought after as a speaker over the years by corporate, in-house, insurance, and HR clients, and is often requested to present to local, regional, and national audiences on a wide range of employment and HR topics.
