

Nancy Mullett

Member

Nancy Mullett helps public and private employers navigate labor negotiations, employee misconduct, discrimination and harassment, human resource issues, and wage and hour laws.

Prior to joining Clark Hill, Nancy served as the Corporation Counsel for Calhoun County where she focused on all aspects of municipal law and acted as the chief negotiator for the County's collective bargaining units. In addition, Nancy worked as an assistant prosecutor for Calhoun County and as a special assistant attorney general for the Michigan Attorney General's Office.

Nancy is actively involved and committed to her community. She serves on the board of several foundations and non-profit agencies and volunteers regularly at various school and community functions.
