
Shadi Nasabzadeh

Legislative Specialist

Shadi Nasabzadeh is a Legislative Specialist in the Government & Regulatory Affairs group, providing support to nonprofit, university, and corporate clients in federal advocacy and associated business development. Shadi's work includes:

- Supporting the formulation and execution of legislative strategies and advocacy on behalf of nonprofit, local government, university, and corporate clients
- Drafting policy memos, white papers, and bill language
- Researching, tracking, and analyzing federal legislation, regulations, and budgets, with a focus on the federal appropriations process, and
- Supporting business development efforts, including the drafting of RFP responses and presentations.

Shadi graduated summa cum laude and with University Honors from American University. She is also a 2019 Public Policy and International Affairs Fellow at Princeton University's School of Public and International Affairs.

Practices, Industries & Services

Government & Regulatory Affairs

Office

Washington, DC
1001 Pennsylvania Ave NW
Suite 1300 South
Washington, DC 20004

(202) 640-6669 (phone)
(202) 640-6690 (fax)
snasabzadeh@clarkhill.com

Education

B.A., summa cum laude, American University, Washington DC, International Studies, minor in Justice & Law, Phi Beta Kappa, and with University Honors

2019 Public Policy and International Affairs Fellow at Princeton University's School of Public and International Affairs