

We at Clark Hill Dublin are acutely aware that many small businesses and sole traders are operating in an entirely unique environment and are faced with making difficult decisions every day in the face of a sudden decline in cashflow and liquidity. They require immediate access to trusted and experienced advisors.

While working remotely, our team of dedicated Solicitors and Partners are launching a free, no obligation, call-back service where our specialist teams of Employment, Corporate, and Insolvency/Restructuring lawyers will endeavour to assist and give guidance on issues such as:

Employment Law

- COVID-19 Wage Subsidy Scheme
- COVID-19 Business Loan
- The Credit Guarantee Scheme
- Banking Initiatives
- Supports Provided by the Revenue Commissioners
- Enterprise Ireland Support

Corporate/Commercial Advice

- Advice on business insurance policies and business interruption cover terms.
- Enforceability of Commercial Contracts/Frustration/Force Majeure.
- The holding of Director/Shareholder meetings remotely.
- Practicalities of executing resolutions in a remote environment, etc.
- Completing and executing commercial transactions remotely.

Insolvency/Restructuring Advice

- Advice and assistance in relation to informal, consensual, restructuring options with main creditors.
- Formal restructuring procedures such as examinership and schemes of arrangement.
- Insolvency procedures such as creditor voluntary liquidations.
- Advices in relation to personal restructuring, whether by way of informal, consensual arrangements with creditors or by availing of the more formal, court-based procedures under the Personal Insolvency and Bankruptcy Acts such as PIA's/DSA's and Bankruptcy.

Our call back service will go live from Tuesday the 14th April 2020 on 01 6855699.

Please share this notification with any of your clients or contacts who you feel might benefit from our advice.
